Amazing A-levels

Congratulations to Nikki, a member of the Head Girl Team, who achieved an incredible three A*s in Mathematics, Further Mathematics and Computer Science.

Well done to Sophia, a talented musician and Warburton Prize winner, who achieved A*s in Music and Psychology alongside an A in Geography; securing her place at King's College London to study Music.

A huge well done to Maysa, this year's highest achieving student. Maysa achieved a phenomenal five A*s in Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Maths and French, securing her place at Trinity College, Cambridge.

"We are immensely proud of our students' achievements this year. These results reflect not only their academic excellence but also their dedication, resilience and passion for learning. We wish them every success as they embark on the next stage of their journeys across a wide range of universities."
– Mrs Helen F Jeys (Head Mistress)

GCSE Results August 2025

A huge congratulations to Safina, who achieved an outstanding set of GCSE results: eight grade 9s, one grade 8, and an 8 in Further Maths.

Congratulations to our Year 11s, who achieved an average Grade 8 (A) and 77.5% of all grades between 9 & 7. From STEM to the Arts, our students have truly excelled across the board!

Zahra achieved fantastic results in her GCSE's across all subjects. Her dad spoke highly of MHSG: "We think it's a well-rounded school and offers great support for students."

Congratulations to Eve, who achieved an incredible 10 grade 9s in her GCSEs. Eve said: "I'm feeling great now, very surprised and excited."

A huge well done to Savannah! A talented performing arts and music student, she achieved an amazing five grade 9s and five grade 8s in her GCSEs.

"I am thrilled for our fantastic Year 11 pupils. Not only do their results demonstrate their hard work and academic abilities but they have maintained their extra-curricular passions throughout their GCSE years. Our pupils demonstrate an inspirational balance in their approach to life, highlighting the importance of wellbeing and personal happiness – all so important to success in life beyond school."

– Mrs Helen F Jeyes (Head Mistress)
