Amazing A-levels

Congratulations to to Kiyah-Louise, a bursary student, who achieved a phenomenal 3A*s and an A and secured her place at Cambridge University to study Engineering.
She said: "I'm so shocked and so happy. MHSG has been instrumental throughout this entire process. I wouldn't be where I am without my teachers and my friends. I'm most proud of myself for staying resilient."

Well done to Disha, who achieved 3 A*s and secured her place to study Medicine at Queen Mary's. Her parents said: "We'd say to anyone thinking of sending their daughters to MHSG, don't even think twice. We have no regrets, Disha is 100% a Manchester High girl and now she has achieved her dream."

Congratulations to Bea, who achieved an A* and 2As and secured her place to study Law at Nottingham. She said: "My teachers have spent hours going over past papers with me and supporting me."

"I am immensely proud of the class of 2026. They are an inspirational group of young people who I know will go onto make positive changes in the world. Their results – across such a wide range of subjects – are testament to their passion for learning, broad interests and exceptional hard work."
– Mrs Helen F Jeys (Head Mistress)

"Once again, our Manchester High pupils have excelled in their GCSE examinations; I am delighted and exceptionally proud of them. They have results, alongside a huge range of interests, that will provide them with a superb platform for their future and I am excited to see how they continue to flourish in the Sixth Form."
– Mrs Helen F Jeys (Head Mistress)

"I would say to anyone, don't be afraid to go for opportunities, at MHSG there's a plethora. Try everything, chase rejection. That one 'yes' will propel you to where you want to be."
